

Bertram Knight

c1889-1916

Private 23303

10th Battalion Welsh Fusiliers (Machine Gunner)

He was the 29 year old son of Aylburton shipwright, Robert Knight, and his wife Sophia Walker. The couple were widower and widow, both with children, when marrying at Lydney in 1888.

Baptised Sydney Hewlett B. Knight in 1889, and registered as Sidney Hubert B. Knight, he was more commonly known as Bert. He married Daisy F. Morley at Paddington, London, in 1910, and was employed as a tinsplate worker at Pontymister, near Newport, South Wales, in 1911.

Bert enlisted with the Welsh Fusiliers in February 1915, and was killed in action on March 3rd 1915. His home address was then given as Stockwell Cottage, Aylburton. He is commemorated on the Ypres Memorial (Menin Gate) Panel 22.

In Memory of

Private

Bertram Knight

23303, 10th Bn., Royal Welsh Fusiliers who died on 03 March 1916 Age 25

Son of Sophia Knight, of Stockwell Cottage, Aylburton, Lydney, Glos.

Remembered with Honour
Ypres (Menin Gate) Memorial

Commemorated in perpetuity by the Commonwealth War Graves Commission