

Harry Robins
1892-1916
Private 4274
13th Division Cycling Corps

Harry Robins was the 24 year old son of blacksmith's labourer, Henry Colwell Robins (1854-1903), and his wife Edith Mary Addis (1861-1919).

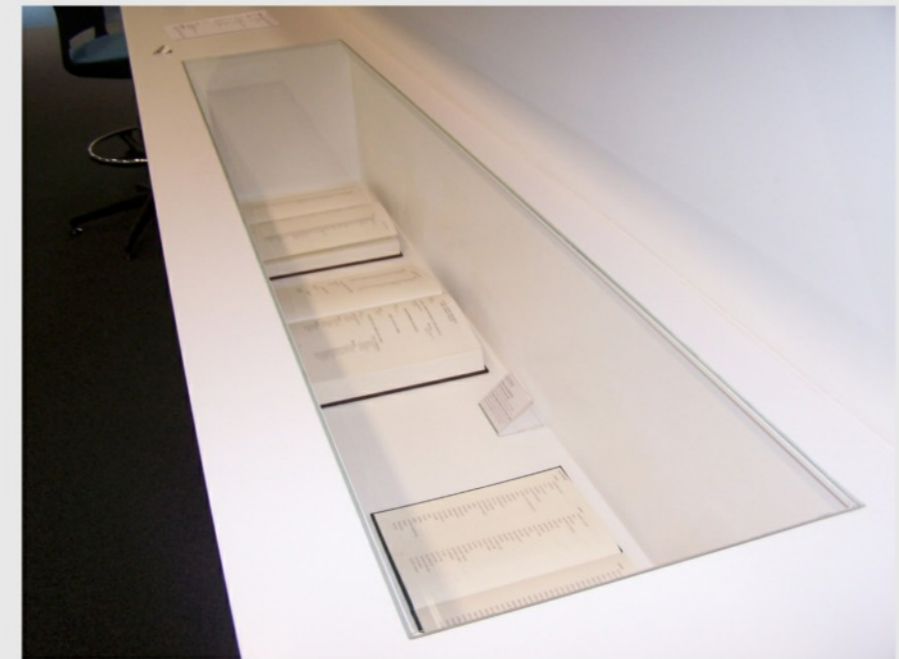

He was working as a colliery engine driver when he enlisted with 7th (Service) Battalion, Gloucestershire Regiment, at Lydney in August 1914.

He transferred to the 13th Division Cycling Corps on January 11th 1915 and was part of the 13th Division Signals Corps attached to the Mediterranean Expeditionary Force, when he arrived at Basra, Iraq, in February 1916.

Harry was killed in action on April 23rd 1916. He is commemorated on the Basra Memorial.

In Memory of Private
Harry Robins
4274, 13th Div. Cyclist Coy., Army Cyclist Corps who died on 18 April 1916

Remembered with Honour
Basra Memorial

Commemorated in perpetuity by the Commonwealth War Graves Commission