

Percival James Stephens
1887-1917
Lance Corporal 56225
2nd Battalion Royal Welsh Fusiliers

Percival Stephens was the 27 year old son of grocer James Stephens (1844-1898) from Chepstow, and Mary Ann Davis from Aylburton, who were married in the Chepstow District in 1889 (Mar Qtr). James died in 1898 and Mary Jane and Percy are recorded on the 1901 census living at her parent's home in Aylburton. In 1911 she and her mother were now living with Percy in Abercarn, South Wales, where he was employed as a clerk in a tinplate works.

L/Cpl Percival James Stephens was killed in action on May 28th 1917 and is buried at Boisleux-au-Mont Communal Cemetery, St. Marc, France.

In Memory of
Lance Corporal

Percival James Stephens

56225, 2nd Bn., Royal Welsh Fusiliers who died on 28 May 1917 Age 27

Son of James and Mary Jane Stephens, of Netherend, Lydney, Glos.

Remembered with Honour
Sunken Road Cemetery, Boisleux-St. Marc

Commemorated in perpetuity by the Commonwealth War Graves Commission