

Evan Rosser Gillham
1890-1919
Colour Sergeant 14032
11th Battalion Royal Welsh Fusiliers

Evan Gillham, the 28 year old son of tinplate works manager, Richard Gillham, and his wife Ada, was born at Aylburton in 1890.

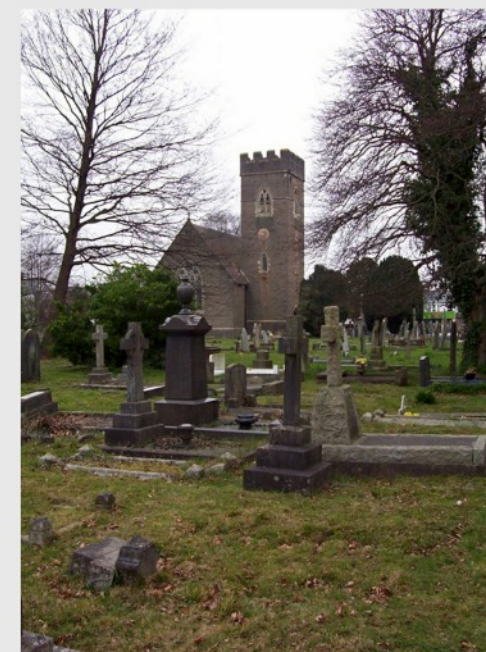

Before enlisting in the Welsh Fusiliers, Evan was a clerk in a tinplate works and living at Whitchurch near Cardiff. Two of his brothers also joined up, Percy in the RFA, and Cyril in the Welsh Fusiliers.

Evan died in the UK in March 1919 and is believed to be buried in Whitchurch cemetery.

In Memory of Colour Serjeant
E R Gillham

14032, 11th Bn., Royal Welsh Fusiliers who died on 04 March 1919

Remembered with Honour
Whitchurch (St. Mary) Churchyard, Glamorganshire

Commemorated in perpetuity by the Commonwealth War Graves Commission